

Arts Scholarships for Young People

Created and funded in 2004 by the Arts Commission of Danville/Boyle County, the McKune Arts Scholarship Program enables students, from kindergarten through high school to participate in arts activities beyond those offered in a school's curriculum.

Eligibility

To receive a scholarship award, not to exceed $150, children must meet the following criteria:

1. live or attend school (including home schools) in Boyle County, Kentucky
2. have financial need
3. demonstrate interest in an arts activity.

Qualifying Activities

Examples of activities that qualify for an annual award from the Arts Scholarship Program include:

- private or class lessons in music, art, dance, or drama
- participation in a community arts organization, such as:
 - Heritage Area String Program
 - Arts for Kids, ETC
 - West T. Hill Community Theatre
- student out-of-pocket expenses associated with participation in a regional, state, or national competition or activity that is not funded by the school
- musical instrument rental

Nominations

Applicants can be nominated by a teacher, parent/guardian or arts instructor. Awards are determined without regard to sex, race, religion, country of origin by an impartial group of members of the Arts Commission of Danville/Boyle County, and are authorized by its Board of Directors.

Applications

To apply for an Arts Scholarship on behalf of a worthy student, please fill out the top portion of the following page and forward to the arts organization or the instructor you intend to provide awarded services. Award recipients will be notified by the Arts Commission. If you have questions about the program or application process, please contact: Ann Nichols, executive director, 859-238-0063 or email@arts-dbc.org.

Acknowledgments

In accepting these funds, the arts organization or instructor agrees to acknowledge support provided by the Arts Commission of Danville/Boyle County in material published by that organization or instructor for the duration of the child's participation and to provide copies of the publication to the Arts Commission. This acknowledgment should include the following statement:

Participation in this event was made possible in part by the McKune Arts Scholarship Program, developed and funded through the efforts and activities of the Arts Commission of Danville/Boyle County.
